About Us

The volunteer Police Chaplain Corps consists of a professional team of ordained faith leaders from a variety of faith backgrounds, who serve CPD officers, employees and their family members, and the Chattanooga community. Chaplains do not enforce the law, carry weapons or make arrests.

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Chattanooga Police Department Volunteer Chaplain Corps is twofold:

- 1) To offer spiritual support to CPD officers, employees and their families.
- 2) To provide spiritual support to people who are victims of crime and trauma in the Chattanooga community.
